

WEEKLY NOTES

21 August 2005

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

The services today are in 'August style,' in which simplicity is the keynote. Once again very basic Notes today. The 'Sunday Paragraph' will resume next Sunday, when the normal style of our services resumes.

Our prayers today: We pray for our church and parish, and in the worldwide Church we pray today for those who belong to the Lutheran Churches (the Church of England is in full communion with some of them). In the diocese we pray for the two new archdeacons as they prepare to take up their posts. In the parish we pray for our Ewell Parish News distributors, and for the people who live in Spring Street.
