

week after that, when the Administrator is back in the office. This is a slack period, but we might as well all know what the position is.

Next Sunday. This is the first of the three Sundays when our worship is in its simplest form. Dr Miller is kindly looking after the eucharistic side of things, and Wendy Varney and Reg Saunders will be looking after Mattins. All the singing is congregational, and the choir is on holiday. The 0930 Eucharist will be celebrated at the nave altar, with minimal ceremonial, and Holy Communion will only be given at the front of the nave.

WEEKLY NOTES

3 August 2008

ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Very basic Notes today. The services are very simple in style for three Sundays, returning to normal on 24 August. The choir is on holiday; the 0930 service is at the Nave Altar, and there is no evening worship at St Mary's throughout August.

Our prayers today. We pray for this church and parish, and in the worldwide Anglican Communion for the Church in Wales. In our diocese we pray for the University Chaplains at the University of Surrey and at the Royal Holloway College. Within the parish we pray for all visitors who have come to our services of Christian Family Praise during the past twelve months; and we pray for the people who live who live in Chatsfield.
