

WEEKLY NOTES

26/04/2009

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

*A very warm welcome to any visitors or newcomers to St Mary's today.
Please make yourselves known, and join us for coffee in the church hall across the road after the Sung Eucharist.*

A warm welcome to the Rural Dean, the Reverend Stuart Thomas, who is celebrating the Eucharist at both morning services. He will also chair the Annual Parochial Church Meeting.

Stuart writes: This is an exciting few days for St Mary's as the APCM looks back over the past 12 months, and we then look forward to the future as we meet the shortlisted candidates 36 hours later. Please first of all pray for those interviewing and deciding, and for the candidates themselves, that God will guide them all through this very important process. And please also keep me informed of any brief comments you may wish to make, having either met the candidates or simply wanting to express a view – I'll then feed these into the decision process. My email address is: revstuart.thomas@btinternet.com

Our prayers today. We pray for our own church and parish, and in the Anglican Communion for the Church in Papua New Guinea. In our Diocese we pray for the parishes in the Godalming area. In our parish prayer we pray today for Father Richard & Sue as in retirement and also for those in the parish who have yet to come to faith in Christ. We pray especially for those charged with choosing our new vicar over the next couple of days. In our regular prayer for the people living within the parish boundaries we pray today for those living in The Orchard, Tayles Hill.

Hymn: MHT 122

Finished the strife of battle now,
Gloriously crowned the victor's brow:
Sing with gladness, hence with sadness:
Alleluya, alleluya.

After the death that him befell,
Jesus Christ has harrowed hell:
Songs of praising we are raising:
Alleluya, alleluya.

On the third morning he arose,
Shining with victory o'er his foes;
Earth is singing, heaven is ringing:
Alleluya, alleluya.

Lord, by your wounds on you we call:
Now that from death you've freed us all:
May our living be thanksgiving:
Alleluya, alleluya.

Organ: Fugue from Sonata on Psalm 94 - Reubke

DO YOU SHOP AT SAINSBURY'S?

Do you collect the vouchers for anyone? If not, please collect them for our Guide Unit. Bring them to church and hand them to one of the Churchwardens. Our Guides and Brownies do a lot for us - let's return the favour and help them.
