

WEEKLY NOTES
16/08/2009 TENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

---

*A very warm welcome to any visitors or newcomers to St Mary's today.
Please make yourselves known, and join us for coffee in the church hall across the road after the Sung Eucharist.*

We welcome the Rural Dean, The Reverend Stuart Thomas this morning as he celebrates the Eucharist at 8.00am. The 9.30 Eucharist service is in the care of our Readers and so this will take a slightly different form that will probably only be familiar to those attending the regular Tuesday morning celebration. However, this makes it no less a service of Holy Communion.

With the choristers away for their summer break, please sing heartily.

Our prayers today. We pray for our own church and parish, and in the Anglican Communion for the Churches in the Indian Sub-continent in which there is an Anglican component (North India, South India, Bangladesh, and Pakistan). In our Diocese we pray for the parishes of St Mary's Frensham and St Mary's Send.. In our parish prayer we pray today for Russell and Elaine married yesterday and for their subsequent move to Ewell and also for our representatives on the Epsom Deanery Synod In our regular prayer for the people living within the parish boundaries we pray today for those living in Persfield Close.

There will be no Tuesday morning celebration of Holy Communion in August.

The Invocation, the Greeting

Brothers and sisters, in the Gospel of Saint Luke we read:

At supper with his disciples on the night he was betrayed Jesus took a cup, and after giving thanks he said, ‘Take this and divide it among yourselves; for I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.’ Then he took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, ‘This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’

We have come together in our Father’s presence to offer him praise and thanksgiving, to hear and receive his holy Word, to bring before him the needs of the world and to ask his forgiveness of our sins. In union with those who celebrate [have celebrated] the Eucharist at ... this day, we seek God’s grace in Holy Communion. For as often as we eat this bread and drink the cup in obedience to his command, we proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

Then the Prayer of Preparation (page 168): first Prayer of Penitence; then Absolution.

Blessed are you,
God of those who hunger and thirst,

which is the bread of life.
You strengthen us with your Spirit,
the new wine of your Kingdom.
In Christ you are food for the hungry,

Blessed are you, our Creator and Redeemer.
Blessed be God for ever.
Turn to page 178 for the Lord's Prayer;
