

WEEKLY NOTES
PATRONAL FESTIVAL

13/09/2009

*A very warm welcome to any visitors or newcomers to St Mary's today.
Please make yourselves known, and join us for coffee in the church hall across the road after the Sung Eucharist.*

We are delighted to welcome back the Archdeacon of Dorking, The Venerable Julian Henderson, who will celebrate the Eucharist for us at both morning services.

Julian writes: I am extremely grateful to the team at St Mary's for all their hard work during the vacancy this year, for the way they have maintained the pattern of services Sunday by Sunday and are now preparing for the arrival of Russell and Elaine. At time of transition and change we trust in the God who remains faithful and constant, the same yesterday, today and forever, and we look forward to the blessings He will bestow on the work at St Mary's in this new chapter of its life.

Today sees a change in responsibilities in the Junior Choir with Head Chorister Rebecca Gocher off to university in Manchester next week. We wish her well and thank her for all she has done and looking forward to seeing her back. The new team for the year will be led by Emma Chubb as the in-coming Head Chorister.

Our prayers today. We pray for our own church and parish, and in the Anglican Communion for the Eastern Orthodox Churches and Bartholomew, the Ecumenical Patriarch. In our Diocese we pray for all the other churches in the Diocese dedicated to Our Lady. In our parish prayer we pray today for Russell and Elaine married last month and for their subsequent move to Ewell and also for the bell-ringers of St Mary's. In our regular prayer for the people living within the parish boundaries we pray today for those living in Beech Walk.
