
WEEKLY NOTES

Fifth Sunday of Easter

2nd May 2010

Everyone is warmly invited to coffee in the church hall (just across the road) after the 9.30 service.

The funeral of Freddie Melrose will be at St Mary's at 11am on 17th May.

Sunday Prayer Cycle

We pray today for the church and for the world, and especially in the Anglican Communion, for the province of Papua New Guinea;
in our diocese for the parishes in the Leatherhead area;
in our parish, for Father Graham Bamford and the people of St Clements RC church;
and for those living in Ewell Park Way.

Collect and Post-communion Prayer

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ have overcome death and opened to us
the gate of everlasting life:
grant that,
as by your grace going before us
you put into our minds good desires, so by your continual help
we may bring them to good effect;
through Jesus Christ our risen Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Eternal God,
whose Son Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life:
grant us to walk in his way,
to rejoice in his truth,
and to share his risen life;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.
Amen.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation. Pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. See that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently. Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.
