WEEKLY NOTES

Sixth Sunday after Trinity (and Sea Sunday) 11th July 2010

---

Everyone is warmly invited to coffee in the church hall (just across the road) after the 9.30 service.

Sunday Prayer Cycle

We pray today for the church and for the world, and especially

• in the Anglican Communion, for the Church in Wales; • in the Church of England, for the General Synod • in our diocese, for the parishes in the Emly deanery; • in our parish, all who work in the shops, offices, pubs and restaurants in Ewell Village; • and for all who live in Hampton Grove.

Collect and Post-communion Prayer

Merciful God,
you have prepared for those who love you
such good things as pass our understanding:
pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things
and above all things,
may obtain your promises,
which exceed all that we can desire;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

God of our pilgrimage,
you have led us to the living water:
refresh and sustain us
as we go forward on our journey,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

(Today the choir sing an anthem during the offertory instead of the usual hymn; as usual, the collection is taken at this point.)

They that go down to the sea in ships, and occupy their business in great waters; These men see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep. For at his word the stormy wind ariseth, which lifteth up the waves thereof. They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep; their soul melteth away because of the trouble. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end. So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, he delivereth them out of their distress. For he maketh the storm to cease, so that the waves thereof are still. Then are they glad, because they are at rest; and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

Anthem: Never weather-beaten sail - Wood

Never weather-beaten sail more willing bent to shore, never tired pilgrims' limbs affected slumber more; than my wearied spright now longs to fly out of my troubled breast: O come quickly, sweetest Lord, and take my soul to rest. Ever blooming are the joys of heaven's high paradise, cold age deafs not there our ears nor vapour dims our eyes; glory there the sun outshines, whose beams the blessed only see: O Come quickly, glorious Lord, and raise my spright to thee.

How will you be helping with the Ewell Village Fair? (17th July)

Can you help with setting up and taking down the fair? We need help on Friday 16th July, between 5pm and 8pm; or on the day itself, 4pm-6pm. If you are able to carry things, and can spare a little time, we would be enormously grateful.

We need you to run a sideshow for an hour. Sign up today! We also need a cashier for the barbecue, can you help?

Does anyone have a carryable small fridge we could borrow on the day of the fair? Please speak to the Vicar or David Crick.

THIS WEEK

Wednesday: Coffee morning in the church hall, 10.30-12. Everyone most welcome. This week: Come and enjoy delicious home-made scones with your tea or coffee and maybe purchase some for later.

Thursday: 1st Ewell Village (St Mary's) Brownies and Guides are holding a "Pampered Chef Party" in the Church Hall this Thursday starting at 6.30pm, with Ready Steady Cook, Facepainting, Biscuit decorating, Raffle, and Refreshments available.
