

WEEKLY NOTES

Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity

19th September 2010

Everyone is warmly invited to coffee in the church hall (just across the road) after the 9.30 service.

Sunday Prayer Cycle

We pray today for the church and for the world, and especially for the Baptist Churches; for the Pope visiting England this weekend;
for those responsible in our diocese for the care of churches and churchyards;
for the Internal Affairs Committee of our parish, and for all who live in Kingston Road.

Collect and Post-communion Prayer (at 8 & 9.30am only)

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you;
and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power
faithfully to fulfil them;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Almighty God, you have taught us through your Son that love is the fulfilling of the law: grant that we may love you with our whole heart and our neighbours as ourselves;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

REGULAR SERVICES THIS WEEK

This week the Vicar is away in Salisbury on a 'New Post Consultation', i.e. a course for priests who have been in a new job for about a year. The only weekday service this week will be Tuesday 10am Holy Eucharist in the parish room.

NOTICES

The Vicar says: Many thanks to all who took part in yesterday's vision event, especially those who did the catering and facilitated discussions.

If you missed it, copies of the short questionnaire are available at the back of church and your input would be much appreciated.

When all responses are in, it will take a little time to collate them, and I will also beginning 'phoning round those who have indicated they would like a phone call. Watch this space as I report back on progress.

There are some newly-donated books in the parish library in the welcome area. They are not yet sorted, and the welcome area itself will soon receive a makeover, but please do go and have a browse and feel free to borrow books that interest you.

THIS WEEK

Tuesday: Café NESCOL starts up again, 12-2 in the church hall. Very reasonably priced light lunches available—do come along and try it if you haven't already.

Wednesday: Coffee morning in the church hall, 10.30-12. Everyone most welcome.

FUTURE DATES

Monday 27th Sept: If you can, please come to help with the sorting of the Harvest gifts on at 9.30am in church.

Wednesday 29th Sept: There will be a table-top sale at the coffee morning (10.30-12 in the church hall). The theme will be "Fruit, flowers, and fancy foods." All contributions and customers will be most welcome.

Saturday 2nd October: Harvest Supper in the church hall, 6.30 for 7pm, tickets £8, available after the 9.30 service or from the parish office.

Tuesday evenings in October: The House Group will be looking at a DVD series exploring Jesus' parables. This is open to everyone, even those not usually part of the house group or part of St Mary's. Lifts can be arranged. Enquiries to Julian & Wendy Varney (8393 5212) or John & Sarah Stovell (8393 0786).

 Saturday 9th October: Autumn Festival of Music – The Schools Concert. Schools from all round Ewell will be taking part to make what promises again to be a fantastic evening of musical entertainment. I know as many people as possible will want to come and support the evening, which is a great example of the church and wider community working together. The concert will begin at 7pm: tickets, £4, can be bought on the door, and under 16s are free.

Sunday 10th October: 11am Toddler Groups' Service especially aimed at members of our toddlers groups; and 5.30pm Choral Evensong to which all members of Churches Together in Ewell have been especially invited.
