
WEEKLY NOTES

Last Sunday after Trinity (and Bible Sunday) 24th October 2010

You are warmly invited to coffee in the church hall (just across the road) after the 9.30 service.

Sunday Prayer Cycle

We pray today for the church and for the world, and especially for the World Council of Churches; for St Mary's, Cuddington (our cluster partner) for our twinned parish of Corriverton in Guyana, & Fr Marcus Simon, their priest, and for those living in Longdown Lane North.

Collect and Post-communion Prayer (at 8 & 9.30am only)

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures
to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them
that, through patience,
and the comfort of your holy word,
we may embrace and for ever hold fast
the hope of everlasting life,
which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

God of all grace, your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

There will as usual be the reading of names of the faithful departed at the two requiems on All Souls' Day, 2nd November. You are invited to include names of departed loved ones by putting them in the blue box at the back of church or via parishoffice@stmarysewell.com or the parish office on 0208 393 2643.

If you would like a poster to discourage trick-or-treat callers at the end of the month, 'No to Halloween' posters are available at the back of church.

Recipes from the Cake Stall: We are hoping to compile favourite cake recipes (the ones you have all been asking for for years!) into a booklet to be sold for church funds, to be ready in good time for Christmas. If you are willing to divulge your recipes (along with any interesting information, e.g. history, handy hints) please would you give them to Alison Archer-Lock or send them to the parish office by the end of October.

There have been requests for large-print New English Hymnals. Members of the congregation are invited to sponsor copies for church at £15 each. Two offers so far. It would be nice to have at least half a dozen for those who have trouble reading our hymn books.

The Vicar says: "I'm sorry I still haven't not rung everyone who indicated they would like a phone call after the vision day. I will make every endeavour to get to you as soon as possible!"

If you would like to receive these weekly notes by email each week please email the Vicar on vicar@stmarysewell.com.

Sponsor: Church flowers have been sponsored by Eve Myatt-Price in loving memory of her mother.
